MEETINGS

Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity will have its fall term initiation today at 5:30 in the EMU, room to be announced. All pledges and members must be present. We are now accepting applications for coming invitations. Interested business and economics students are encouraged to contact Alpha Kappa Psi in Gilbert Hall.

The Associated Students of Business, Economics and Management will have an initial meeting today in 237 Gilbert at 4:30 p.m. All students interested in overseas job experiences are encouraged to attend.

More Power to Ya, a pro-science, pro-technology, access to energy group (that will as an initial priority endeavor to provide the University community with a reasoned response to the various "anti-nuclear" cults) will hold an organizational meeting Tuesday, Nov. 20. For time, place and/or more information, call Tom Peters at 686-6518 or Robert Moneely at 485-5869.

There will be a public hearing, sponsored by the ASUO, to discuss the proposed University computerized registration system tonight from 7 p.m. until 8 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted on the EMU daily schedule board.

LECTURES

"Nuclear Power and the Draft" will be the subject of a discussion by EWEB Commissioner John Bartels at 12:30 p.m. today in the EMU, room to be posted. Bartels will discuss the relationship between the nuclear industry, the military, and the recent attempts to reinstate the draft. Bartels is a chief author and sponsor of the initiative petition to implement Article XI-D of the Oregon Constitution which would set up the Oregon Energy Development Commission to develop non-nuclear renewable energy sources. This is another in a series of weekly discussion sponsored by SOLAR. For more information contact Bob Jensen at 484-6258.

The West University Neighbors will present a rape prevention "film clinic" workshop tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the center at 1458 Ferry St. The film, "Acquaintance Rape," and discussion will be presented by the Rape Crisis Network.

Hee-Jin Kim, religious studies, will lecture at 7:30 p.m. in Room 204 Chapman on "The Monk-Lay Relation in Theravada Buddhism."

MISCELLANEOUS

Auditions will be held today and Thursday for two University Theatre productions. "The Shadow Box," by Michael Christopher, will be directed by David Johnson and will performed February 8, 9, 14, 15 and 16. "Streamers," by David Rabe, will be directed by Faber DeChaine and will be performed February 22, 23, 28, 29 and March 1. Everyone is welcome to try out; auditions for both shows will be held at 7 p.m. in the Arena Theatre, Villard Hall. Those interested in auditioning should have a two to three minute prepared audition, preferably from a modern serious drama. For more information call University Theatre at 686-4192.

Woman's rap group, sponsored by Gay People's Alliance, will meet today at 7:30 p.m. For more information call GPA at 686-3360.

There's more to being a Duck fan than just going to football games.

Show your support this Saturday when the Ducks meet UCLA at Autzen Stadium. The bookstore offers you Duck banners, blankets, hats, buttons, scarves and beer steins. Only at the Bookstore.
