

GTFs will vote

The Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation will hold a general meeting to vote on the ratification of a proposed contract today at 7:30 p.m. in the EMU (room to be posted). All GTFs who are members of the GTFF by 5 p.m. today can vote. For more information call the GTFF office at 344-0832.

Absentee balloting will continue for those who can't attend today from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Speakers lose tourney

This weekend the University speech team travelled to Sacramento State College and placed among the top five schools at the tournament. Considering that only a small fraction of the team competed this weekend, the success rate was phenomenal.

Winners included: Joan Larsen, 1st Prose Interpretation, 3rd After Dinner Speaking, 4th Poetry Reading; Shelly Barber, 1st Poetry Reading; Connie Carnese, 3rd Expository Speaking; Lori Putnam, 3rd Negotiations Processes; and Lowell Axtmann, 4th Prose Interpretation.

Receiving Honorable Mention were: Shelly Barber and Greg Hatcher, Duet Acting; Lowell Axtmann, Persuasive Speaking; John Hedrick, After Dinner Speaking; and Tom Worsch, Prose Interpretation.

Nov. 17-18 the Duck speech team will travel to McMinnville for the Linfield McMaffey Invitational.
