MEETINGS

The Campus Interfaith Ministry invites University students to attend an ecumenical worship by the fireside at Wesley Center today at 6 p.m. Bread 'n' soup is shared following the service. For information, call 344-4219.

More Power to Ya', a pro-science, pro-technology, access-to-energy group (that will, as an initial effort, endeavor to provide the University community with a reasoned response to the various "anti-nuclear" cults) will hold an organizational meeting Tuesday, Nov. 20. For time, place and more information, call 686-6518 or 485-5869.

AIIESEC will hold a meeting today at 5 p.m. in 137 Gilbert. Topics to be discussed, include 1980 elections, the international business day and overseas job opportunities.

The Political Science Student Union will meet today at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be announced. The discussion will center around the crisis in Iran and on next Thursday's forum in the ballroom at 3:30 p.m. For information call 686-4890.

Representatives of University day care centers, womens organizations and community groups will meet with student parents for a child care information and problem solving session this evening. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m., in the EMU, room to be posted. Child care will be provided.

Worship, fellowship and food is offered by the Episcopal Campus Ministry every Sunday afternoon from 2:30 until 5:30 p.m. at Koinonia Center, located at 1414 Kincaid St.

The Lane County Young Democrats will meet today at 7:30 p.m. at 733 E. 15th Ave., No. 40. Various projects for the coming year will be discussed. For more information call 345-4102.

A noon prayer service will be held today, Fast-day, at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 13th Avenue and Pearl Street. Special emphasis will be on prayer for the starving people in Cambodia.

LECTURE

The Oregon State Employees Association, Chapter 88, will hold its regular November business meeting today at noon in the EMU (room to be posted). All classified employees are invited to attend. There will be a guest panel discussion on retirement, staff benefits and OSEA-member-only benefits.

Hee-Jin Kim, Religious Studies, will lecture today at 7:30 p.m. in 204 Capman on "Selflessness in the Japanese Way of Life: a Tokugawa example."

Robert Yeatts of the Oregon State University Geology Department will conduct a lunchbag seminar today at 12:30 p.m., in 307 Volcanology on "Neotectonics of the Ventura Basin, California."

"Medicine and Health in China" is the subject of today's noon meeting of the East Asian Studies Club. Dr. Richard Litchfield will give a slide presentation and discuss his impressions of medical conditions in the People's Republic. All interested people are invited to attend the meeting, to be held in the EMU.

Richard Vawter, of the Western Washington University physics department, will lecture today at 4 p.m. in 146 Straub on the "Entropy State of Multiple Choice Exams."

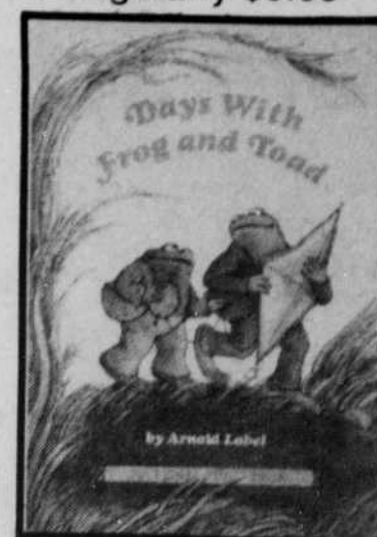

The Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will feature Tom Cook, Friday at 7 p.m. in the Stafford Hall Lounge. Cook will speak on the "Biblical Basis of Social Action."
