Now you see it...

Imagine holding a deck of cards and showing friends the top card and then right before their eyes changing the card with a wave of your hand. Could you do it?

Is it some mystical gift to a few people that allows them to make coins disappear at will? Maybe you once believed magicians were psychically gifted and perhaps you believed that because they wanted you to think that. Among the members of a Eugene magic club, however, there are no secrets and some of them say they don't even believe in psychics. Anyone, they say, can learn magic.

Want to learn about them? Then try the following trick, "The Centerfold of Hearo Nowo." Now you see the cover, now you don't. Abracadabra, presto-chango, please turn to Page 4B.

Now you don't
