

Workshop attracts handicapped

Physically handicapped adults are invited to attend an outdoor Physical Education activities workshop at the University April 11-13.

The free program is being sponsored by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department, the University intramural sports program and ALERT, a disabled students group at the University.

Activities for the event are as follows:

Friday, April 11: activities in racketball, volleyball, bowling, ping-pong, billiards and general fitness.

Saturday, April 12: instruction in basketball, tennis, bicycling, backpacking, water polo, rafting, canoeing, kayaking, orienteering and self-defense.

Sunday, April 13: Ski trip. Ski equipment adapted to the handicapped will be provided for the excursion. There will be a small charge to cover transportation costs.

Reservations for the workshop should be made by April 11. For further information call the University Outdoor program at 686-4365 or the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department at 687-5311.

'No spray' signs ready for public

A package including "No Spray" signs should be available sometime next week to Lane County residents who do not want their property lines sprayed by the county, according to the county public works department.

A department representative says the county is in the process of putting together the "No Spray" package, which should be back from the printer next week.

For more information about the "No Spray" package call the public works department at 687-4222.
