Spring dinner for foreign students set

The Foreign Student Friendship Foundation will hold its annual spring dinner for international students and friendship families in the Eugene-Springfield area on Friday, April 25, in the South Eugene High School Cafeteria.

The potluck dinner, which includes foods from different countries, begins at 6:30 p.m. following a social hour that starts at 6 p.m.

The dinner is open to all international students and the public at no charge, according to Liz Litchman of the University's International Student Services Office. Families attending should bring a potluck dish. International students are encouraged to wear their national dress.

Highlighting the program will be presentation of awards to foreign students for outstanding achievement and major contributions to international understanding, she says.

About 450 families in the Eugene-Springfield area take part in the friendship family program. It provides an opportunity for international students to see first hand something of American family life.

For more information call the International Student Services Office at 686-3206.
