City council seeks advice on metro plans

The Eugene City Council is taking applications for citizen appointments to the Metropolitan Area Planning Advisory Committee. MAPAC reviews and comments on metropolitan plans and policies, develops and implements citizen involvement programs and makes recommendations for update of planning guides.

The group consists of 21 members — seven each from Lane County, Eugene and Springfield.

Applicants must be residents of Eugene. Application forms are available at City Hall, 777 Pearl St., in the city manager's office. Application deadline is Friday.

For further information, contact the city manager's office, 687-5010.

NW film competition open

Film and video makers in the Northwest are invited to submit work completed since Aug. 1, 1979, for competition in the Northwest Film and Video Festival.

Sponsored by the Northwest Film Study Center in Portland, this eighth annual survey of Northwest work will award a total of $1,600 to winners whose pieces are selected for exhibition in festival programs August 14-17 at the Portland Art Museum. Additional honoraria and recognition will be provided through national circulation of festival selections.

Judge for this year's competition is Amos Vogel, founder-director of Cinema 16, America's largest film society and founder of the New York Film Festival and Lincoln Center Film Department.

Entry forms are available at the Northwest Film Study Center, Portland Art Museum, 1219 S.W. Park Ave., Portland, OR 97205 or by calling (503) 221-1156.
