

Reagan picks press aide, huddles with Gen. Haig

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pres.-elect Ronald Reagan filled two more vacancies on his White House staff Tuesday and spoke with Secretary of State-designate Alexander M. Haig about the Iranian hostage stalemate, which may be inherited by the new administration.

Reagan stepped out of Blair House, coatless despite Washington's freezing temperatures, to announce to reporters that James Brady, his transition team spokesman, will be White House press secretary, and Karna Small of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce will be Brady's deputy.

The appointments were the first Reagan has announced personally. The president-elect also pledged to hold regular press conferences, but would not say how often.

Reagan's unscheduled appearance followed a 1½-hour meeting with Haig, who faces a promised grilling this week when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee considers his nomination. Some senators, particularly Democrats, want to question the retired Army general about his White House role during Richard Nixon's administration.

After his first meeting with Reagan since the Republican National Convention last summer, Haig said he expects his confirmation hearing to be "very thorough." But he said he is prepared and doesn't expect any problem.

The hearings were mentioned during his session with Reagan, Haig said, but they focused on "the organizational arrangements that we will set up for the conduct of American foreign policy."

Haig also said he and Reagan "discussed a number of current foreign policy issues that are very urgent and very important."

Asked if his mentor, former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, would have a role in the Reagan administration, Haig said he wouldn't ignore the "experience, skill and knowledge" of any former secretary of state and might seek advice from time to time.

Chapman pleas innocent, insanity seen as defense

NEW YORK (AP) — Mark Chapman, ringed by armed court officers in a heavily guarded courthouse, pleaded innocent Tuesday to killing former Beatle John Lennon. His lawyer said Chapman won't deny the shooting but will offer insanity as his defense.

Defense attorney Jonathan Marks also said he acknowledged that his client is mentally competent to stand trial.

"Not guilty," were the only words spoken by the 25-year-old Chapman during a brief appearance before State Supreme Court Justice Herbert Altman.

The judge appointed two psychiatrists and a psychologist to examine the defendant, one of them a veteran of the Son of Sam multiple murder case. Pre-trial hearings were scheduled for Feb. 11 and Feb. 25, with a trial date to be set at the latter appearance.

Chapman is accused of stepping out of the shadows late on the night of Dec. 8 and gunning down the 40-year-old Lennon as he and his wife, Yoko Ono, were entering their luxury apartment building.

Chapman has been described as an ardent Lennon fan and only a few hours before the shooting had obtained the former Beatle's autograph as Lennon and his wife left the Dakota.
