

Wrestlers absorb first loss

Oregon's eighth-ranked wrestling team suffered its first defeat of the season to powerful Cal-State Bakersfield, 20-18, Wednesday night at Bakersfield.

The Ducks lost the four of the first five matches of the meet and were down 20-3 before Oregon's Jeff Stuebing (167) took to the mat against Dave Johnson. The Ducks needed at least two pins and two decisions to pull out a win, which would have been their 11th consecutive victory this season.

Oregon won the next four matches, but only could manage one pin, that by Dan Cook in the heavyweight division.

"It was really a gallant effort on our part," said Oregon coach Ron Finley. "Even

Duck swimmers submerge two opponents

Behind the winning efforts of Phil Oaks, Mark Bernett, Jeff Morgan and Bob Glass, the Oregon men's swimming team submerged San Francisco State, 75-19, and Southern Oregon State College, 56-39, Wednesday in Ashland.

The Ducks improved their season record to 3-0.

"Phil had a very good meet," said Oregon coach Rich Schleicher. Oaks, a senior, won the 50-meter freestyle in 23.08 and swam a leg on the winning 400-meter medley relay team (3:49.81).

Barnett, a junior, won the 200-meter breast stroke in 2:29.35, along with swimming on the 400 medley team. Morgan, a junior, won the 200-meter butterfly in 1:58.91, while Glass, also a junior, won the 100-meter freestyle in 49.04.

This Saturday, the Ducks meet Oregon State in a 6 p.m. dual meet at Leighton Pool.

"They'll definitely be a challenge," Schleicher said of the Beavers, who are rebuilding their program after it diminished during the 70s.

though we couldn't win it, our heavyweight, Dan Cook, still went out and pinned his opponent.

"Bakersfield is an outstanding team. Tuesday night, they beat Oklahoma, who was ranked number two in the country, 27-12. They can compete with every major college team in the country."

Oregon's Mike Erb (118) was handed his first loss this season, by Adam Cuestas, a former Duck wrestler, 9-6. Cliff Porter, the Ducks' 134-pounder, who was undefeated on this road trip, lost to Jesse Reyes, 6-5.

"This loss could really be a good lesson for us," Finley said. "This was one of our better team efforts this year. Five wins on this trip is really good for us."

The Ducks return to the mat this Sunday when they host Washington State in McArthur Court at 2 p.m.

118 — Adam Cuestas (CB) dec. Mike Erb, 9-6; 126 — Dan Cuestas (CB) dec. Miles Hancock, 32-5; 134 — Jesse Reed (CB) dec. Cliff Porter, 6-5; 142 — Bill Nugent (O) dec. Steve Nichell, 12-6; 150 — Lee Noble (CB) dec. Keith Beutler, 11-6; 158 — Glen Cooper (CB) pinned Rick O'Shea, 6:30; 167 — Jeff Stuebing (O) dec. Dave Johnson, 10-4; 177 — Mike Miller (O) dec. Joel Acosta, 8-5; 190 — Ryan Kelly dec. Mark Loomis, 6-4; Dan Cook (Heavyweight) pinned Matt Clark, 1:55.
