RICHARD PRYOR LIVE IN CONCERT

Richard Pryor is pure outrageous magic on stage. In fact, the man's dangerous. He makes you laugh so hard you can hurt yourself. At Long Beach, the site of this film, they had to carry one woman out of the concert hall because she was laughing so hard she couldn't breathe. This bawdy and uproarious comedy should be a fine start to winter term.

THE WHO IN THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT

As the NEW YORK DAILY NEWS put it, "No self-respecting Who fan will miss seeing THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT." This good time movie chronicles one of rock's most vibrantly zany bands, The Who, in an exciting documentary that distills their electrifying energy thru rare concert footage and insightful interviews. KIDS is an overwhelming experience, an exciting testament to one of the most controversial and vital superbands in rock history. And just to make it interesting, 2 film posters will be given away FREE at each of the showings, winning to be determined by the number on your ticket stub.

THE SUFI CIRCLE PRESENTS

ALLAUDIN WILLIAM MATHIEU IN CONCERT

Allaudin's spontaneous improvisations have an intricate and far-flung architecture. His music has been called "an early planetary cathedral." Allaudin has composed for Duke Ellington, Maynard Ferguson, Stan Kenton, The San Francisco Symphony Chorus, and the The Kronos String Quartet. At present, Allaudin lives and teaches in San Francisco, working with his colleague and mentor Terry Riley. This is Allaudin's first solo appearance in Oregon. With strong training in jazz, classical music, and North Indian singing, his music combines elements from all three into a unique and special presentation.

FRIDAY, JAN. 9 8 PM
GERLINGER LOUNGE (15th & University) $4

Allaudin will be interviewed and selections from his music played on January 9, at 11 am on KLCC and at 12:30 pm on KWAX.

Allaudin will also offer workshops on January 10 and 11. Information available at the concert or call 342-4695. 1-9

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents

A SLAVE OF LOVE

This widely praised film was first in the U.S. in early 1979 and astonished many for two reasons: a great story coupled with great filmmaking, and it's a Russian production. The last is astonishing because recent Russian films have not achieved the greatness of Russian cinema in the '20s. The setting of the film is 1918 during the the Bolshevik Revolution. In the south of Russia a film crew is attempting to finish a romantic melodrama, oblivious to the tide of change about to engulf them. Their film supply runs out, government troops invade their set and the turmoil of revolution draws closer. Only the beautiful leading lady is able to recognize the political realities, as falling in love with a Bolshevik cameraman she finds herself caught up in the forces of revolution and transformation.
