Robert Graves' I, Claudius
Part 1 and 2
"It's about a family business called ruling the world." Claudius, Emperor of Rome, nearing the end of his life, hastens to complete his history of his notorious family, the Claudian Caesars. This series is a richly fascinating soap opera, better than anything you've seen on the major networks. We will be showing two 1-hour episodes every Thursday night. #1, A TOUCH OF MURDER, documents a grim beginning as Claudius' grandmother Livia poisons Augustus' heir Marcellus so her son Tiberius can succeed Augustus. In #2, FAMILY AFFAIRS, Livia poisons both Agrippa, Augustus' best friend and Drusus, her second son and the father of the young Claudius.

THE SEDUCTION OF JOE TYNAN
Power and principles, like love and marriage, collide in this critically acclaimed box office hit about a Senator with presidential ambitions and the price he has to pay. Alan Alda - who also wrote the screenplay - stars as Joe Tynan, a decent, likeable man who works hard to improve conditions for his constituents, but whose Washington job keeps him away from his wife and family. Barbara Harris shines as Tynan's wife as does Meryl Streep as the lawyer with whom he has an affair. THE SEDUCTION OF JOE TYNAN is one of the better films examining the stresses of modern politics.

KEETJE TIPPEL
Directed by Paul Verhoeven, one of the up and coming filmmakers of Dutch cinema, KEETJE TIPPEL beautifully recreates the atmosphere of late 19th century Amsterdam. It is the story of an irrepressibly spirited young woman who, with her poor rural family, migrates to Amsterdam in search of food and work. Keetje works in a wool factory, a hat shop, is raped, contracts tuberculosis, yet her indestructible spirit carries her through adversity to a lucky break.
