production of
I, CLAUDIUS
"It's about a family business call ruling the world." Last week's episodes introduced us to the Caesars - the emperor Augustus and his wife, the fiendishly evil Livia, the grandparents of the young and fatherless Claudius. Livia is plotting and poisoning all who would stand in the way of her son Tiberius and the throne. In #3, WAITING IN THE WINGS, Livia manouvers the banishment of Julia, Augustus' daughter, now only her sons stand in the way of Livia and Tiberius. We come to know young Claudius in #4 WHAT SHALL WE DO ABOUT CLAUDIUS? Him limp, twitch and stutter make him the butt of the family's jokes, but the famed historian Livy recognizes his intelligence. Livy advises Claudius to play the fool if he is to survive in bloody Rome.

If you missed the first 2 episodes it's not too late to catch up on the fascinating story of Claudius and his notorious family. Brief plot summaries of each episode are posted in the window of Suite 2, EMU.
