

Montana falls to Duck pressure, 89-57

Taking to the road proved profitable as Oregon's women's basketball team swept past the University of Montana Thursday night 89-57.

But it was a victory Oregon had to fight for. The Lady Grizzlies held to within four points of the Ducks throughout the first half, trailing 36-32. In the second half, Montana's defense, which played a strict zone all evening was able to hold Oregon up to the 10 minute mark.

"We adjusted our offense slightly with 10 minutes to play," said Oregon coach Elwin Heiny. "Our players, especially on the perimeter, were able to pick the zone apart."

Bev Smith lead the Ducks, scoring 38 points in 40 minutes to tie the all-time University scoring record set by Debbie Adams. Smith shot 73.7 percent from the floor, 14-19, and 10-11 from the line.

"The three on the perimeter, Diane (Heimstra), Angie (Snider), and Bev (Smith), were able to work past their zone and score," Heiny said.

Oregon is now 5-0 in league play and 15-5 for the season.

Saturday, the Ducks will meet Montana State University.

"We're looking for another game like this one here — but more lopsided," Heiny said.

Gymnasts seek victory over Cards in co-ed meet

After absorbing defeats to nationally ranked opponents, Oregon's men's and women's gymnastics teams will try to bounce back against Stanford University in a co-ed meet at 8 p.m. in McArthur Court.

Both Cardinal teams also have national status — the men are 20th, the women 17th. The Oregon men will be favored in the dual while the women will be a slight underdog.

The Duck men's team is 3-1 and ranked fourth nationally after falling to third-ranked UCLA two weeks ago.

"We shouldn't have much trouble with them, if we go out and do our routines," says men's gymnastics coach Bill Ballester. "But we can't take them too lightly, either. They're much better than they have been in the past."

Stanford has a season-high team score of 265.90 in a three-way meet, while the Ducks have tallied a 273.20 best this season.

The Ducks will be led by all-arounder Kelly Crumley (56.17), floor exercise All-American James Yuhashi (9.90) and ring specialist Alex Schwartz (9.75). All three hold the school record for their event.

A victory over the Cardinals will be more difficult for the Oregon women.

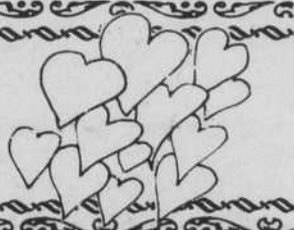

Freshman Marilyn Chapman, a U.S. national team member, is Stanford's premier performer. She is considered one of the nation's top five all-arounders.

The Oregon women, 6-1 this season, will counter with freshman Maureen Nolan and junior Sara Gustafson. Both scored 34.35 in the all-around last week to pace the Ducks to a season-best 138.15 against Oregon State University last week.

Stanford has scored a 135.35.

It isn't everyday somebody asks your opinion ... and then listens

During this month, Lane Transit District is holding a series of public workshops . . . The purpose of these workshops is simple: We'd like to hear your ideas for making bus service in Eugene-Springfield even better than it is today . . . It's an opportunity to work with LTD: and to make the bus system work for you.

This is an open invitation . . . everybody is welcome. Bring your family . . . or a friend. And let's work together for an effective mass transit program in Eugene-Springfield.
