

Bombed

The Oregon men's basketball squad couldn't see the basket for the schrapnel as Oregon State shot 72 percent from the floor to blast the Ducks, 78-61. The Beaver's Mark Radford (below) overcame pressure from Felton Sealey and crew to score 10 first-half points. Shaky officiating was enough for Oregon coach Jim Haney to draw a first-half technical (left). But in the end, Steve Johnson and his teammates had nothing to do but celebrate. See story on Page 15.

Photos by Steve Dykes

