College Bowl comes back in residence halls

College Bowl, a team tournament of academic excellence based on the popular television show of the 1950s and '60s, is being revived by students in University residence halls.

Teams representing 52 living groups began preliminary competitions Feb. 2. A final team championship round is set for 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, in the EMU Forum Room.

Five teams, one each from the University Inn, Walton, Bean, Carson and Hamilton residence halls, will compete in the finals.

University faculty members have served both as moderators and as judges during the competition.
