

Gymnasts split dual meets

Kelly Crumley won the all-around in both meets against the Arizona schools this weekend.

Oregon's gymnastics teams came home from an Arizona road trip after enjoying mixed success.

The men's squad split their dual meets, beating University of Arizona but suffering an upset to Arizona State. The women also lost to the Sun Devils, but defeated Cal-Berkeley and Arizona.

The 12th-ranked Arizona State men's team won four of six events to nip the fourth-ranked Ducks, 272.55-270.95. Oregon's Kelly Crumley won the all-around with a 54.55 score.

Crumley also took the all-around against Arizona, in addition to winning the pommel horse and floor exercise, as the Ducks topped the Wildcats, 272.20-263.05.

The women lost to sixth-ranked Arizona State in a triangular meet with Cal. The Sun Devils scored 142.65 to Oregon's 138.80. Maureen Nolan paced the Ducks with a third in uneven bars (8.70) and a fifth in the all-around (33.35).

Sara Gustafson won three events plus the all-around to lead Oregon to a 132.30-126.90 victory over the Wildcats.

Globetrotters brighten McArthur Court tonight

The "clown princes of basketball," the Harlem Globetrotters, will alight in McArthur Court tonight at 7:30.

The Trotters began their world-spanning trip in 1927 with a game in Hinckley, Ill. Their traveling has since expanded to 75,000 tour miles a season.

Using two teams — one international and one North American — the Globetrotters play over 300 games a year. The international team will appear in Mac Court tonight.

Over its 53-year existence, the team has played almost 15,000 games in 97 countries, appeared in 1,300 North American cities and entertains an annual television audience of over one billion people.

The Globetrotters are led by "Geese" Ausbie, Nate Branch and dribbling wizard "Curly" Neal.

Game tickets are $6 for reserved seating, $4 general admission and $3 for grade and high school students and University students and their spouses.

AVIATION TRAINEES WANTED!

The U.S. Navy is looking for highly motivated sophomores, juniors and seniors to become pilots, air tactical coordinators and electronic/computer operators. There is no affiliation with a ROTC Unit, nor do you need to have 20/20 vision. If you qualify, we can guarantee you aviation training. Sound too good to be true?

INTRODUCTORY OFFER

Barbecue
PORK RIBS
$5.95

Right now, The Branding Iron is introducing their Brand New Hickory-Smoked Barbecue Pork Ribs. They're served with a complete dinner that includes home-made soup or tossed green salad, rice pilaf, french fries or baked potato and bread for only $5.95.

But what's even more amazing than that, is that these Texas-Style Pork Ribs are so big, lean, meaty, and delicious, they even fooled "El Paso Billy", and we all know about him; he thinks we rustled the recipe from Texas. But we didn't.

Ask for Oregon's own Texas-style Pork Ribs for only $5.95 tonight at The Branding Iron.
