THE SUFI CIRCLE PRESENTS
AMARCORD
Based on Fellini's recollections as a youth in a small town of pre-war Italy, this is perhaps his best loved film. The story, autobiographical in part, is of a young man who longs for the freedom of adulthood, but can't quite leave the safety of adolescence. With affection and humor, Fellini celebrates the sense of kinship that exists among the inhabitants of the town, while acknowledging its shortcomings - political naivete and narrowness - which paved the way for fascism.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents
DIANE KURYS' Peppermint Soda
Diane Kurys' PEPPERMINT SODA is an effervescent concoction with a surprising kick to it. An unheralded first film by a young unknown director, it went onto become the biggest grossing film in France, followed by equally unexpected success in the U.S. The scrapbook-like story centers on the friends, family, school, sulks, sexual misconceptions, bad grades, adventures, and misadventures of a French schoolgirl from summer to summer in the watershed year of 1963. The originality and accuracy of Kurys' vision of adolescence immediately moved critics to place her in the company of Francois Truffaut. SUBTITLES

Gillian Armstrong's MY BRILLIANT CAREER
This Australian film was one of the surprise hits of last year. It's the story of Sybylla Melvyn as an exuberant young girl growing up in the Australian outback during the turn of the century. She admits to a solid streak of egotistical independence that prevents her from engaging in the dusty struggle of becoming the wife of a dirt farmer or anyone else. She hates the thought of milking cows, raising children and giving up her dream of a career as a writer. Newcomer Judy Davis sparkles as the impulsive heroine, struggling to break tradition.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM proudly presents the witty and candid BBC production of
I, CLAUDIUS
As the I, CLAUDIUS series comes to its end, we'll end on a 2 hour Roman marathon. In #11 FOOL'S LUCK, Claudius shows himself to be a kind and competent ruler. However, his young wife Messalina is also showing herself as competent a behind the scenes manipulator as the dead Livia. Claudius reconquers Britain and worshipped as a deity in #12 A GOD IN COLCHESTER. Upon his return, he discovers Messalina has beaten a champion prostitute in a tournament of sex. Reluctantly he has her beheaded. He marries his niece, Agrippinilla, in #13 OLD KING LOG. He adopts her son, Nero, as his heir, knowing Rome will be destroyed.
