These and other questions will be addressed by specialists from Political Science, Economics, Sociology, and Geography.

Black History Month Film Festival LAST GRAVE AT DIMBAZA

This classic documentary remains the best investigation of the devastating human costs of the apartheid system in South Africa. It provides a powerful examination of the government's systematic attempts to wipe out black family life, retaining only those essential for a cheap labor force. General excellence of substance and presentation... "it will shake the apathy of the most quiescent."

La

Salamandre

(THE SALAMANDER)
Alain Tanner's LA SALAMANDRE in his captivating and droll film debut, filled with an infectious high spirit. He achieves this thru a cinematic awareness of the oblique, casual, but all-important ways in which people act. The story concerns the efforts of a 2 young writers - one who relies on intuition and one who relies on facts - to construct a TV script around a purported murder attempt by a young working woman who doesn't get along too well with the world. Bulle Ogur creates a wonderfully kinky and defiant modern heroine. SUBTITLES
