LATIN AMERICAN FILM SERIES PRESENTS:
"LUCIA"
 Sat. March 7, Cinema 7, 4:00 pm
 Weds. March 11, 150 Geology, 7:30 pm
Admission $2
 Lucia is one of those rare films that deals with the role of women in history. In its depiction of the classically machismo Latin culture, Lucia puts into clear perspective those longstanding social attitudes and customs which have determined the second-class status of women.
 Lucia is at one and the same time, a unique view of Cuban History and Latin American culture as well as a dramatically engaging examination of women's worldwide struggle for social equality. 3-11

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents
THE APPLE WAR
 A fanciful satire on this mad, modern 20th century, THE APPLE WAR stands out as a witty, charming, and subtle victory for the individual over the corporate society. Set in contemporary Sweden, the film chronicles the rebellion of a small rural village against capitalistic invaders who seek to pave the town over in the creation of "Deutschneyland," a giant amusement park. This strange little comedy is rapidly attaining cult status.
