Needy youth to get aid

A limited number of scholarships will be available for the University summer enrichment program because of a $4,800 grant from the Oregon Community Foundation in Portland.

The program, in its second year, is designed to extend the education of gifted and talented students in grades six through eight beyond what is offered in public schools.

The grant will provide full scholarships of $320 for 15 gifted but economically disadvantaged youngsters, says special education and program coordinator George Sheperd. Last year, 450 students participated in the program, offered in three two-week sessions.
