LATIN AMERICAN FILM SERIES PRESENTS:
"LUCIA"
Weds. March 11, 150 Geology, 7:30 pm
Admission $2
Lucia is one of those rare films that deals with the role of women in history. In its depiction of the classically machismo Latin culture, Lucia puts into clear perspective those longstanding social attitudes and customs which have determined the second-class status of women.
Lucia is at one and the same time, a Unique view of Cuban History and Latin American culture as well as a dramatically engaging examination of women's worldwide struggle for social equality. 3-11

ROCKERS
 Featuring the music of Bunny Wailer, Burning Spear, Peter Tosh, Jacob Miller. Made with the same feeling that made "The Harder They Come" so appealing "Rockers" is a more Rastafarian view of the struggle. Leroy "Horsemouth" Wallace is the reggae drummer whose short rise to record distributor brings him into conflict with his environment. A lot of great reggae and music of Peter Tosh, Bunny Wailer.
