

Kansas burns Sun Devils in NCAA

From Associated Press reports

WICHITA, Kan. — Tony Guy poured in 36 points and Kansas, in yet another stunning NCAA upset, mauled third-ranked Arizona State 88-71 Sunday in second-round basketball action of the Midwest Regional playoffs.

Kansas will meet Wichita State in the semifinals. Earlier Sunday, Wichita State's Randy Smithson sank two free throws with five seconds left after Iowa called an illegal timeout to lift the unranked Shockers past the 13th-ranked Hawkeyes, 60-56.

Arizona State, heavily favored with a 24-3 record over the unheralded Jayhawks, now 24-7, hardly looked like the top-ranked team remaining in the NCAA tournament.

Kansas consistently befuddled the high-powered Sun Devil offense with a well-disciplined zone defense and held a surprising 45-29 halftime lead.

The Jayhawks took command in the final eight minutes of the first half, outscoring the Sun Devils 24-8. Arizona State guard Byron Scott, bombing away over the zone at the outset of the second half, trimmed the Kansas lead to nine. But that was as close as they got.

Wake Forest falls

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — John Bagley scored 35 points, including four in the final minute, as Boston College upset 11th-ranked Wake Forest 67-64 in an NCAA Midwest Regional second round game Sunday.

The victory moved Boston College into the region semifinals against St. Joseph's, which upset DePaul 49-48 Saturday.

Bagley gave the Eagles the lead for good when he drilled a 15-footer from the left base line with 54 seconds remaining to erase a 62-61 deficit.

Bagley came back 34 seconds later with two free throws that built the margin to 65-62, then had a steal that set up two closing free throws by Chris Foy with four seconds left.

Virginia advances

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Freshman Othell Wilson and senior Lee Raker sank three free throws in the final 25 seconds of play to give Virginia a 54-50 victory over Villanova in the second round of the NCAA East

Regional Sunday.

The Cavaliers will meet Tennessee, an overtime winner over Virginia Commonwealth, at Atlanta in Thursday's regional semifinal game.

Wilson, who substituted for Raker in the Cavalier starting lineup, was fouled by Villanova's Tom Sienkiewicz in front of the Virginia bench. With 25 seconds remaining, Wilson converted both free throws to give Virginia a 53-50 lead.

North Carolina wins

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — James Worthy and Sam Perkins combined for 40 points Sunday as sixth-ranked North Carolina downed Pittsburgh 74-57 in the second-round of the NCAA West Regional basketball tournament.

In the second game of the regional doubleheader, 14th-ranked Utah beat Northeastern.
