

sports

Stanford blanks Oregon, 12-0

Nothing Oregon did seemed to make any difference Tuesday as Stanford easily downed the Ducks 12-0 to end the baseball team's California roadtrip.

After the Ducks were unable to make it around the bases in the top of the first inning, Stanford opened the game up by scoring five runs on four hits, two runs on a double by Mike Aldrette.

The Ducks were buried in the second inning when a change in the pitching lineup could not keep the Cardinals from scoring four more runs.

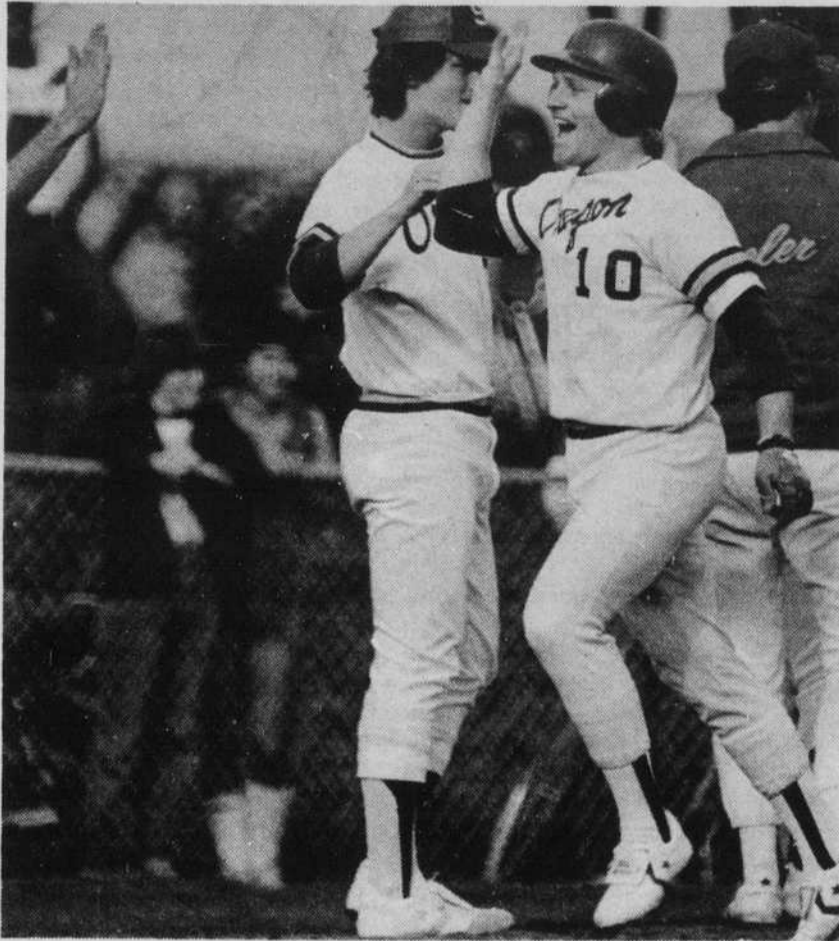

And in the third, the outlook became even bleaker.

A two-run homer by Stanford's John Elsway put the Ducks out of the ballpark, unable to return.

A final run in the fourth inning ended Stanford's scoring streak, as the Cardinals finished the game with 12 runs, 14 hits and three errors.

The Ducks accumulated no runs on four hits and four errors.

Next action for the Duck baseball team, now 7-5 for the season, will be April 3 at Washington State.

Emerald photo

Oregon's baseball team made plenty of trips around the bases early this season, but was unable to snag even one run Tuesday against Stanford.

Oregon — 000000000 0 44
Stanford — 542100000 12143

Joggers don dirty shoes for Torture Ridge Run

Only the craziest joggers will don their dirtiest running shoes Sunday for a trek through Hendricks Park, site of the fifth annual Torture Ridge Run.

Billed as the "toughest run west of the Rockies," the seven to eight mile Torture Ridge course, along narrow twisting trails, through ditches and creeks and over three "killer" hills, attracts nearly 600 runners.

The race, described as one of the "ten most obscure races in America" by Runner's World, boasts three "torture" ridges, the last so steep runners use a rope to pull themselves to the top.

The run offers a lot for a $3 entry fee — a tee-shirt, a chance at prizes provided by Nike Eugene, and mud, blackberry bushes and swamps.

Runners interested in running the course can register at Nike Eugene in the Atrium building downtown, at the physical education department in Eslinger Hall or at Hendricks Park the day of the race.

The race will start at 10 a.m. Sunday. For more information contact John Lathorp or Gwen Drake, 686-4105.

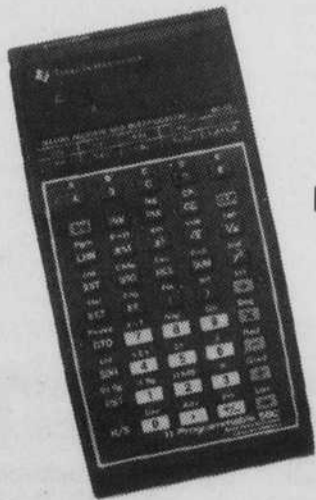

Club ski team wins carnival

The University recreational ski club won the overall trophy last week at the All-College Spring Carnival in Sun Valley, Idaho.

The 51-member team, part of the University club sports program, took first in men's novice slalom, second in men's and women's intermediate slalom, first in women's advanced slalom and third in men's and women's obstacle course.

Six other teams competed in the carnival, including University of Washington and Stanford University.

Calculator Specials

TI-58C
$99.95

Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price
$130.00

TI-59C
$239.95

Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price
$300.00

UO
BOOKSTORE
13th & Kincaid
Mon-Fri 8:15-5:30
Sat 10:00-2:00

Limited to stock on hand.

Textbooks 686-3520 • General Books 686-3510 • Supplies 686-4331

Get ready for Spring!

Bring your bike to the Cyclery for a tune-up.

General tune-up reg. $20.00

Month of April only $15.00

Quality service & repair
New Sekai's in stock

2495 Hilyard 345-0477