EMU CULTURAL FORUM
presents the Sunday series
The Best of Classic Comedy

THE CAMERAMAN

For years, this Buster Keaton film about a tintype photographer who scoops a rival news cameraman by covering a Tong War in Chinatown was shown to new comedians at the M-G-M studio as the archetype of "ideal comedy structure." Keaton's eloquent deadpan face and expressively acrobatic body generate laugh after laugh in one of his best films.

SONS OF THE DESERT

Laurel and Hardy shine as incompetent husbands who defy their wives and go off to the Order of the Moose convention with sidesplitting results.

DONA FLOR AND HER TWO HUSBANDS

An intoxicating carnival of a movie, full of bright colors, noisy parties, pulsing Brazilian music, and steamy softcore sex... a classic erotic comedy. Shows

ALIEN

Seven crew members aboard the spacecraft Nostromo are awakened from hypersleep by the ship's computer to investigate what seems to be a distress signal coming from a nearby planet. By the time they discover that the signal is actually a warning it is too late: an alien creature, virtually indestructible and totally hostile, has attached itself to a crew member and gained access to the ship. One by one, the alien relentlessly stalks the crew throughout the claustrophobic confines of the ship, and their efforts to destroy it seemed doomed to failure. Director Ridley Scott (THE DUELLISTS) has fashioned a stunningly visual nightmare where terror lurks in every corner and there is literally nowhere to turn. ALIEN is scary and stylish science fiction at its best.
