

Kings eliminate Portland from NBA playoff picture

PORTLAND (AP) — Forward Reggie King scored 20 points in the second half and dominated play inside as the Kansas City Kings downed Portland 104-95 Sunday to eliminate the Trail Blazers from the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Kansas City led by as many as 12 points in the fourth quarter before the Blazers managed a final run.

Portland sliced the lead to three, 96-93, on a driving basket by Kelvin Ransey with 1:34 to play. But Sam Lacey hit a 10-foot bank shot and King scored on an offensive rebound to put the game out of reach.

The Blazers, who haven't won a playoff series since 1977, shot out to a 15-point lead, 41-26, early in the second quarter. But Kansas City outscored Portland 23-7 over the last eight minutes of the first half to take a 49-48 halftime lead.

Portland opened a five-point lead early in the second half, but the Kings rallied to take control behind the play of Lacey and King.

King led Kansas City with 28 points and 15 rebounds. Otis Birdsong added 22 and Scott Wedman scored 19.

Portland's Billy Ray Bates led all scorers with 34 points, 22 of them in the second half. Mychal Thompson added 17 for the Blazers.

The Kings beat the Blazers twice in Portland to win the best-of-three mini-series two games to one and will meet the Phoenix Suns in the semifinals of the Western Conference playoffs.

The series starts Tuesday night in Phoenix. It is the first time the Kings have won a playoff series since the franchise moved from Cincinnati in 1972.

Net squads post weekend wins

Oregon's tennis teams recorded wins this weekend as both squads easily defeated their opponents.

The women's tennis team won every match against Cal State-Sacramento to take home the team title at the Southern Oregon State College invitational Saturday.

Oregon's top seed Lindsay Bartlett defeated Sacramento's Angela Schmidt, 6-1, 7-6, to set the pace for Oregon's 10-0 victory.

The Ducks defeated Portland State 7-0 earlier in the day to reach the finals, while Sacramento slipped by Oregon State, 5-4.

The men's tennis team also had an easy time as the Ducks earned their eighth victory in nine matches, defeating Oregon College of Education, 9-0.

The Ducks lost only one set in nine matches. Mark Evans and Steve Shaw both posted 6-0, 6-0 victories in singles competition to pace the Oregon team.

The men's tennis team will host Lewis & Clark College today at 3 p.m., while the next match for the women's squad will be April 11 when the Ducks host the University of Washington.

Timbers fall to Seattle, 2-1 in eighth round

SEATTLE (AP) — Jeff Stock slid the ball past goalie Keith McRae on the eighth round of the shootout to give the Seattle Sounders a 2-1 victory Saturday over the Portland Timbers in a North American Soccer League game.

After the score was tied 1-1 at the end of regulation, neither team could score during the regular overtime period.

Both teams then ended the regular shootout period of five kicks each with two goals apiece. The score remained tied on the first two rounds of sudden death before Stock's shot won the match.

Seattle opened the scoring at 35:27, but Portland tied the game with only 1:22 remaining in regulation when the Timbers' John Pratt scored by heading in a clearing pass from Stock.

Portland, which has never won in Seattle, saw its record evened at 1-1. The Sounders are 2-0.
