Job visitation program continues

Six firms in the Eugene area again will offer "Afternoon on the Job" experiences for University students during spring term.

Groups of 15 students will have a chance to see business in action at firms involved in public utilities, civil service, broadcasting, sales, communications and stocks and bonds. The sessions run from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

"The visitations will include presentations on the firm's organization, on the scope of the business and opportunity for entry-level jobs, and on the qualifications the firm looks for in entry-level employees," says Debbie Chereck, career development specialist with the Career Planning and Placement Service.

Students sign up at the Career Planning and Placement office, Room 246 Susan Campbell Hall, on Monday before the particular visit. Participating firms include Eugene Water and Electric Board, April 9; Peace Corps, April 16; KVAL-TV, April 23; Xerox Corp., April 30; Pacific Northwest Bell, May 7; and Foster and Marshall, Inc., May 14.

For more information call Chereck at 686-3235.
