THE RETURN OF THE SECAUCUS 7

Rarely does an independent American film receive such attention and praise as Secaucus 7, making just about every "10 best" film list of 1980 in the nation. In his directional debut, 20-year-old John Sayles has fashioned a highly personal, perfectly realized film about the reunion of old friends, former political activists of the 60's who are now turning 30. They reminisce, play together, make love, talk about making love, re-define their relationships and try to come to grips with the future while at the same time holding on to their experiences of the past. The naturalness of the cast is irresistible. Make way to discover these important new talents.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents

THE DUELLISTS

Ridley Scott's film debut and a winner at Cannes, is a darkly sumptuous period film about obsession. Keith Carradine and Harvey Keitel star as two Hussar officers in Napoleon's army who violently confront each other in a series of savage duels. The duels begin as a reaction to a minor incident and escalate into a consuming passion which rules the lives of both men for a period of 30 years. Based on a Joseph Conrad story, THE DUELLISTS explores the themes of obsession, honor, and violence.

EMU CULTURAL FORUM presents the Sunday series

CLASSIC AMERICAN COMEDY BALL OF FIRE

A fast, hilarious example of screwball comedy directed by Howard Hawks and starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck. BALL OF FIRE recounts the impact a boogie-woogie singer, Sugarbuss O'Shea, has on 8 stuffy professors engaged in compiling an encyclopedia. Having dealt with Saltpeter and Sex, they break their record of nine years' cloistered research by undertaking a first-hand investigation into Slang. Reputedly, the screenwriters were inspired by the fairy tale, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.
