Scoles wins law honors

Eugene Scoles, University law professor and dean of the School of Law from 1968-74, was honored March 27 by St. Mary's University School of Law for outstanding achievement in and contribution to law and government.

Scoles received the St. Thomas More Award from the San Antonio school for "outstanding contributions to legal education and the profession of law as a nationally recognized teacher, scholar, author, dean and president of the Association of American Law Schools."

During his 35-year career, Scoles taught at Northeastern University, the University of Florida, the University of Illinois, joining the University faculty in 1965.
