Eugene Bargaining Action Day

April 23, 1981 7 pm
at South Eugene High School Cafeteria
400 East 19th-between Patterson & Pearl St.

Do you know about Senate Bill #577?
Do you know state management propose a 24 month trial service?

Do you know that recent bargaining is a fight to hold onto what we already have?
The State Management is interested in us. Are we really a unit to be taken seriously, or can State Management assume we will accept whatever is offered.

BARGAINING ACTION DAY IS IMPORTANT BECAUSE IT MAKES US VISIBLE

Come and find out the answers to your questions, and be seen and heard. If we rally together now we won't be sorry later!!! You don't have to be a member to join us at this rally.

Sponsored by Concerned Employees of the University of Oregon. 4-22

THE RETURN OF THE SECAUSCUS 7

Rarely does an independent American film receive such attention and praise as Secaucus 7, making just about every "10 best" film list of 1980 in the nation. In his directional debut, 30-year-old John Sayles has fashioned a highly personal, perfectly realized film about the reunion of old friends, former political activists of the 60's who are now turning 30. They reminisce, play together, make love, talk about making love, re-define their relationships and try to come to grips with the future while at the same time holding on to their experiences of the past. The naturalness of cast is irresistible. Make way to discover these important new talents.

The Sunday series of

Classic American Comedy

MAD

WEDNESDAY

or THE SINS OF HAROLD DIDDLEBOCK

Directed by Preston Sturges and starring Harold Lloyd. MAD WEDNESDAY opens with a sequence from Lloyd's 1923 silent comedy THE FRESHMAN, in which the young Harold Diddlebock wins the football game for his college. Loyal alumnus and tycoon J.E. Wagglesberry offers him a job at the bottom of the corporate ladder; 25 years later, Harold is still there. He's then fired as a bad example to youth. Poor and confused, Harold takes his first drink ever. After dowing a few, Harold is a changed man. With great confidence he makes a fortune at the race track, buys a new wardrobe, the favors of women. But when the drinks wear off, he is stuck with a circus, which he tries to unload on the city's bankers... only to end up, with one of his lions, on a high ledge, dangling over Wall Street by the animal's leash. Showing with MAD WEDNESDAY is THE DOONESBURY SPECIAL.

that exceptional family saga

THE GODFATHER PARTS I and II

Francis Ford Coppola's epic masterpiece features Oscar winners Marlon Brando and Robert De Niro and outstanding performances by Al Pacino, James Cassin, and Robert Duvall. The first part of the saga introduces us to the Corleone family; its rise and near fall from power in America and the passing of leadership from father to son. Part two of THE GODFATHER continues the saga of 2 generations of successive power: the story of young Don Vito and the ascension of his son Michael. This sequel won the Oscar for Best Picture in 1975.
