

Attend classes 500 parents expected for annual campus visit

The University's annual Parent's Weekend scheduled for May 15-17 is expected to draw more than 500 parents from all over the United States, says Mark Bocchi, secretary treasurer of the Student University Relations Council, the organization sponsoring the weekend.

Parents of University students are invited to visit campus and participate in activities scheduled for the weekend. These activities include parents attending classes with students on Friday morning, going to the Beer Garden Friday afternoon, watching the canoe fete on the Millrace Saturday, and attending several concerts and lectures on Sunday.

"The Parents' Weekend provides an opportunity for parents to become better acquainted with the total learning experience of the University," Bocchi says.

Most parents who attend are from within the state, but the weekend does attract parents from other states and countries.

Parents who travel the longest distance to attend the weekend are awarded a prize, Bocchi said. Last year parents from Boston won the award.

Parents are urged to register early using the materials sent out by the community services office to all parents of University students. Parents also may register late, from 8 a.m. until noon, in the EMU.

For more information call community services director Mary Hudzikiewicz at 686-5555.
