OREGON PREMIERE HITO HATA

Poignant drama on the plights of Issei (first generation Japanese immigrants) who pioneered to America at the turn of the century. The life of Oda (veteran actor Mako) an elderly bachelor facing eviction from Los Angeles' Little Tokyo, represents the true struggles of Japanese Americans who contributed to the development of the Western United States. "Hito Hata" also unveils the little-known injustices imposed upon Japanese people throughout their history in America and attempts to replace many stereotypical images with true portrayals of their culture and attitudes.

Peter Sellers in his best role

BEING THERE

BEING THERE is a funny, thought-provoking look at the pervasive influence of TV on our lives. Adapted by Jerzy Kosinski from his novella and directed by Hal Ashby, the film is also a devastating commentary on our search for gurus and instant, simple answers to complex problems. Peter Sellers gives a tour de force performance as Chance, a man with no background or parents, who has spent his entire life gardening and watching TV. When he is thrown unexpectedly into the real world, his naivete and innocence are mistaken for wisdom and profundity by the rich and powerful, who flock to him for guidance and insight. He finally becomes a man of celebrity and influence. The all-star cast includes Shirley MacLaine, Melvyn Douglas and Jack Warden.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

This wild comedy classic was adapted from the Pulitzer Prize play by Kaufman & Hart and directed by Frank Capra. James Stewart stars as the young man who wants to marry the daughter of a family of eccentrics: Grandpa Vanderhof who retired 30 years previously to start having fun, his daughter who writes risque plays and paints, her husband who manufactures fireworks, and one of their daughters, who studies ballet under the tutelage of a Russian ex-wrestler.
