EMU Cultural Forum Presents

American filmmaking at its best Apocalypse Now

Winner of 3 Academy Awards, APOCALYPSE NOW is the long-awaited film directed by Francis Ford Coppola (THE GODFATHER). From the opening shot - a sweeping pan across the napalmed jungle to its close - APOCALYPSE is the consummate statement about the horror, the madness, and the moral dilemma that was Vietnam. Martin Sheen is Captain Willard, who is sent on a delicate secret mission up river to kill Colonel Kurtz (Marlon Brando). Kurtz is an American officer who has set himself up as a god among the natives and is running the war his own way. The film is a record of Willard's journey up the river into madness and his final confrontation with the man that represents all the paradoxes of the brutal war. APOCALYPSE NOW is among the most talked about films of all time and one of the most extraordinary and intense films ever created.
