

GRADUATE FROM DEBT.

By joining the Army for certain specialties, you can now get part of your college debt forgiven.

Here's how it works.

If you've attended college on a National Direct Student Loan or a Guaranteed Student Loan made after October 1, 1975, and qualify, the government can absolve you from 1/3 of your debt (or $1,500, whichever is greater) for each year you serve.

Obviously, a three-year enlistment would eliminate 100% of your debt. But if you want a shorter tour of duty, you can still receive 2/3 loan forgiveness with our two-year enlistment. (Only the Army can make this offer.)

Or you might consider serving in the Army Reserve. If you qualify, as a Reservist you can stay home, get paid for your active duty, and receive 15% loan forgiveness (or $500, whichever is greater) for each year of service.

And if you ever want to go back to school, your Army enlistment will qualify you for thousands of dollars for educational assistance. On top of that, you might even qualify for a generous Army educational incentive. (And you'll still receive loan forgiveness.)

So if your dream is to go to grad school, today's Army can help you get out of debt and into grad school in just a few years.

Of course, with your education, you can probably qualify to start at a higher rank and pay grade. (And, later, there may be opportunities for promotion.)

Remember, only the Army can offer you such comprehensive benefits for such a brief enlistment.
