GATES OF HEAVEN

In his first feature Errol Morris set out to film a minor local news item: the grounds of a pet cemetery were being sold for a housing project, and its occupants were to be exhumed and moved. The experience proved to be traumatic for pet owners and cemetery entrepreneurs alike. What emerges is an often sad, but usually hilarious meditation on the American soul, its myths and obsessions about love, life and death.

Plus the short film

WERNER HERZOG EATS HIS SHOE

Herzog honors a vow he made to Errol Morris that he would eat his shoe if Morris actually made one of the films he'd talked about. Morris did (Gates of Heaven) and Herzog, true to his word, returned to Berkeley to consume of his desert boots in classic, obsessive Herzog style. Complete showings of both films 7:30 & 9:30
