Women third at nationals Warren doubles; Harmon tops javelin field

By JODY MURRAY
 Of the Emerald

Leann Warren scored two victories and Sally Harmon one as Oregon's track team took a big leap into national prominence by tying for third at the AIAW national championships.

The Ducks scored 40 points to tie Florida State. Tennessee tallied 61 points to edge UCLA (57) for the team title in often-soggy conditions in Austin, Texas.

Oregon's team performance pulled them out of a two-year rut of scoring 19 points at nationals. Last year that was enough to tie for tenth; the year before that they were eighth.

Warren, the favorite in the 800 and 1,500, scored surprisingly easy wins in both events. The Oregon sophomore cruised to an AIAW-record 4:15.0 in the 1,500 to defeat Monica Joyce of San Diego State (4:16.15). She then came back 55 minutes later in the 800 and ran down Tennessee's Delisa Walton with a 2:06.07. Walton was second in 2:08.37.

While Warren's success was expected, Harmon's was not. Another Oregon sophomore, Harmon heaved a personal best of 177-10 in the javelin to record Oregon's first individual title ever at an AIAW meet.

Harmon had a season best of 168-5 coming into the meet. She threw her former all-time best of 169-10 as a high school senior.

In the javelin's qualifying round Thursday, Harmon exploded with a 172-5 for the best throw of the day. Then, in Saturday's finals, she popped her winning effort on her second throw in the preliminary round. Harmon's entire series was impressive: 164-0, 177-10, 170-7, 168-8, 163-1, 164-11.

Other individual points for Oregon were tallied by Eryn

Forbes (fifth in the 5,000), Lisa O'Dea (sixth in the 3,000) and
