U of O HOUSING OFFICE WALTON HALL

LIVE FREELY WITH FRIENDS

U of O HOUSING OFFICE WALTON HALL

If you sit down to think about it, you'll discover that living in a residence hall really is a pretty good deal. Go ahead, think about it. Think about the advantages and disadvantages of living in a hall versus an apartment.

First of all, consider the freedom and the friends. Since all of the housekeeping is taken care of, you have lots of time and lots of freedom to spend with your friends.

Second, consider the convenient location of the halls. It really helps to have a home only a short distance from your classes.

Third, consider the freedom from the hassle of buying and preparing food and cleaning up afterwards.

Each hall contains a lounge, fireplace and piano. Each complex contains color television sets, ping pong tables and vending machines. Basketball standards, tennis courts and covered bicycle racks are located near each complex.

For students wishing additional privacy, single rooms are available upon request. In addition to privacy, single rooms offer expanded closet space and are furnished with a comfortable lounge chair.

High quality, nutritious meals are planned and prepared by the professional food service staff, and foods which appeal to students of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds are included in our menus. Three well-balanced meals, which follow a standard menu plan and offer unlimited seconds on most items, are served each day during the term except Sunday when brunch and dinner are served.

For our summer residents, we offer two meal options: 5 or 7 day week.
