

Unfaithful fee

On Page 5 of the 1981 summer session catalog, it is clearly stated that payment of tuition entitles students to the use of gymnasium services; yet when I went over to use these facilities, I was told that it would cost me an additional 10 dollars for the summer session.

In an attempt to find an answer for the extra fee, I was told that funds for the summer use of the facilities have been discontinued and that this is the only way that the University could keep them open for the summer. One of my complaints is that this 10 dollar fee was never announced beforehand and only vaguely alluded to in the first two issues of the Emerald.

I feel that assessment of such a fee in this manner is both capricious and unethical, if not illegal. I realize that the University is in the midst of great financial difficulties, but I would be much more inclined to give a donation than pay this new fee for a privilege that has always been free in the past.

Students bargain in good faith when they pay their tuition and fees. Why can't the University and the state Legislature do the same and what will the next extra fee be for?

Draft equality

The sitting Patriarchs of the Supreme Court have determined that "because of the combat restriction on women," an all-male draft is legal. Never mind that more than half the commanders and nearly half the soldiers of the army that won the revolution in Nicaragua were women. Never mind that American GI's rape, bayonet, disemwomb Asian and other Third World women in the line duty; those women apparently aren't "real" anyway.

Clearly, the meaning of the Supreme Court ruling is that white, American women do not belong in combat, especially in an army whose pacification methods are notorious worldwide. This is another instance of the effort of the rulers of this country to keep women out of equal participation in society in the name of protecting the virtue of white womanhood, as well as upholding the above named tradition of the all-male military. Those who thought protecting white women went out with the civil rights act better look again.

'AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL TO CAPTAIN REAGAN — YOU TAKE CARE, NOW.'

Torture lies

It is clear by now to all Iranians except the few rich living abroad and in Iran, that the peoples Mojahedin organization that has recently called for armed struggle against the Islamic Republic of Iran and its people, is nothing more but another instrument of imperialism. This organization from the beginning of the young Islamic Republic openly opposed it, did not vote for its existence in a nationwide referendum, and now has claimed itself as a legitimate father of the Islamic Revolution.

One must ask this organization that also claims to be a Muslim movement organization, why their practiced ideology is Marxism. This could be clearly seen in their published literature, their cooperation with other imperialist Marxist ideology and their opposition to the government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, which is the true representation of the Muslim Iranian people.

This organization, along with the accusations it has made in the past and continues to do so at present, has always hidden itself behind an honorable figure in Iran to implant their imperialistic views.

They have always used the poor and exploited the people of Iran under the bloodsucker of the century (the shah) to gain their own rights, and now that their ranks are jammed with supporters of the past regime and its SAVAK agents, they are opposing the right and courageous elected government of the Islamic Republic. This organization and other organizations alike have accused the government of the Islamic Republic of Iran of wrongdoing and torture. It should be pointed out that under the order of Imam Khomeini, a detailed and broad investigation was started which lasted for several months, but no evidence of torture was found.

These accusations of the Mojahedin organization are not only ridiculous but rather absolute lies which are not based on any actual fact but mere fabricated evidence. The opposition of Islam has always existed and the present opposition, in whatever form it appears, is a small fraction of international conspiracy against Islam and the young Islamic Republic.

The Islamic Republic of Iran will continue its struggle toward complete independence from East and West and will always stay proud of the Islamic Revolution and its fruit — the Islamic Republic of Iran.
