going to go from there." The Ducks had lost to OSU earlier in the season in an exhibition game, but this time it should be different according to Voelz. "One thing we have definitely learned is that you can't take anybody for granted like we used to," a wiser Voelz said.

"We need a win here to lift our spirits and to start our second season on a winning note." "We learned a lot from our trip."

The Rams return

L.A. pounds lowly Bears, 24-7

CHICAGO (AP) — LeRoy Irvin returned a punt 55 yards for a touchdown, and Wendell Tyler scored twice on short runs Monday night to lead the Los Angeles Rams to a 24-7 National Football League victory over the Chicago Bears in a nationally televised game.

It was the second straight victory for the Rams, who hiked their record to 2-2, while the Bears, who lost quarterback Vince Evans and wide receiver Rickey Watts in the first half because of injuries, slumped to 1-3.

Monday night football

Irvin's punt return was the first for a touchdown by the Rams in 20 years. Dick Bass last returned one 90 yards against Green Bay in 1961.

The Rams took charge the first time they gained possession and marched 71 yards in five plays for a touchdown. Pat Haden, who completed 13 of 29 passes for 210 yards, started with a 5-yard pass to Tyler, hit Willie Miller for 19 and Billy Waddy for 44 before Tyler scored from the 2-yard line.

Another Rams march of 89 yards fizzled on the Chicago 6 and Frank Corral booted a 24-yard field goal early in the second quarter which stood for a 10-0 halftime lead.

Early in the third quarter, the Bears were forced to punt and Irvin fielded the ball at his own 45 yard line, went to his right, cut back up the middle and raced into the end zone with 9:46 left in the period.

Midway in the final period, the Rams scored again. The touchdown was set up when Ruben Henderson was called for pass interference against Jeff Moore, giving the Rams the ball at the Bears 1. Tyler then went around right end for the score.

The Bears averted a shutout when they marched 80 yards for a score in the fourth quarter, capping the drive on a 14-yard pass from third-string quarterback Mike Phipps to Dave Williams.

The Bears' problems were compounded as Walter Payton managed only 45 yards on 17 carries. Payton also fumbled the ball away twice.

Evans had completed only one pass in eight attempts for 3 yards before being knocked out of the game with a bruised shoulder. He was replaced by Bob Avellini in the second quarter.

Under Avellini's guidance and on the running of Payton and Matt Suhey, the Bears marched from their own 35 to the Los Angeles 27. Avellini then hit Watts with a 27-yard touchdown pass, but the play was called back because of a motion penalty against tight end Robin Earl.

Avellini was making his first appearance in a regular season game since Nov. 22, 1979. He was intercepted once and replaced by Phipps in the fourth quarter.

The Rams defense limited the Bears to a total of 84 yards in the first half, 60 on the ground. Ram defenders sacked Bears quarterbacks six times for 40 lost yards in the game.

Tyler spearheaded the Rams' ground attack and gained 68 yards in 17 carries.
