SEMINARS
A "Clean Air" symposium, which will focus on the Federal Clean Air Act, will be held Saturday in Room 167 of the EMU. The Clean Air Act is currently being considered for reauthorization by Congress, and the symposium is designed as an educational program which will examine the role the CAA plays in Oregon's air quality. The symposium will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 6 p.m. For more information, call John Charles at 222-1963 or Joe Weller at 224-5145.
A three-part seminar on personal financial planning will be presented by the University-College of Business Administration on Oct. 7 and 14 at the Portage Inn in the Dalles. Topics to be discussed include the stock market, real estate, limited partnerships, money market funds, tax shelters and other investment opportunities. The course fee is $120 per couple. For more information, call the University business college at 686-3370 or call Portland, 243-6917.

The second in a series of seminars on solar power will be offered Oct. 7 in the EMU. The 12:30 p.m. seminar, led by solar specialist John Kaufman of the Oregon Department of Energy, will focus on potential photovoltaic applications in Oregon and state solar tax credit revisions. For more information, call 686-3696.
A family sex education workshop, sponsored by the Planned Parenthood Association of Lane County, will be held next Tuesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the First Congregational Church. The workshop is free and childcare will be provided at no charge. Pre-registration is required. For more information call 344-2632 or 344-9411.

The first annual Oregon Writer's Conference will feature 18 Oregon writers, including Jean Auel, author of The Clan of the Cave Bear. The conference will be held on Oct. 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Valley River Inn. Registration for the conference, which is sponsored by Women in Communications, costs $35 for non-members and $25 for members. The registration deadline is Oct. 8. For more information, contact Cynthia Stone at 686-9961 (days) or 683-1584 (evenings).
