MISCELLANEOUS

The Professional Studies Program in India is offering American graduate students from a wide variety of disciplines the chance to do fieldwork or research for a year in India. Applications for the 1982-83 year are now available from the University of California at Berkeley. The program provides one month of training in Indian languages and background instruction on the subcontinent's civilization. Also included are round-trip air fare, medical care, a living allowance and research-related travel expenses. January 8, 1982 is the application deadline. To apply or for more information, write to International Education, University of California, 2538 Channing Way, Berkeley, CA 94720, or call (415) 642-1556.

National Student Exchange winter exchanges are available at the University of Northern Colorado. Interested students should contact Joe Wade or Penny at Room 164 Oregon Hall, 686-3211, Tuesday or Thursday.

DUFFY'S

Duffy's tavern is under new management and after remodeling our kitchen we're ready to start cooking.

Announcing Duffy's new lunch & dinner menu.

You'll love the delicious hamburgers and specialty sandwiches from our new menu.

Enjoy Duffy's Special Hamburger with a full 1/4 pound of beef, tasty slices of ham, cheese and bacon, a farm-fresh egg, lettuce, relish, sauce, pickle and onion. Or try Duffy's Gourmet Sandwich with 3 full ounces of ham, a special sauce, lettuce and tomatoes on grilled french bread. Oh, we still have Irene's home-made soups, of course. Beer-cheese, vegetable-beef and, on Fridays, her famous clam chowder.
