THE FOUNDATION'S INVESTMENT PROGRAM

Every year thousands of alumni and friends make gifts to the University through the UO Foundation. The gifts are processed and passed along to the colleges, departments, faculty and students, or endowed for the future.

The endowed gifts are professionally managed under the supervision of the Foundation Board of Trustees in three investment pools, each designed to serve specific needs of deans, department heads, and the University administrators. The pools include a balanced income and growth fund, as a hedge against inflation; a high yield fund, for immediate needs; and a high growth fund to strengthen the future purchasing power of endowment dollars.

Want to know more about the Foundation's investment program? Call Bob Wright, our Controller, at your Foundation,
