Co-op holds open house

Cooperative housing is nothing new at the University. The houses have existed in one form or another since the depression years of the 1930s.

This fall, however, marks the opening of a new cooperative house — the Janet Smith Club.

The club's members will celebrate Saturday with a dinner and open house beginning at 2 p.m., says Steve Brye, a long-time co-op member.

The Janet Smith Club, located at the corner of Alder Street and 18th Avenue, is a sister house to the Campbell Club, located just a few houses down Alder Street, says Brye, an urban planning graduate student.

MEETINGS

All women interested in trying out for the Oregon women's tennis team should attend a meeting today at 3:30 p.m. at the covered courts on 15th Ave. For more information, call the women's athletics office at 686-4421.

SEMINARS

There will be a biology seminar on non-pup genetics on Monday at 1 p.m. in Room 317 Science III. The speaker will be Dr. Robert Tomkins, Department of Biology, Tulane University.

"Flight Interneurons in the Locust and the Origin of Insect Wings," a biology seminar by Dr. Mel Robertson, University of Edmonton, will be offered Monday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 317 Science III.

SPEAKERS

Oregon State Sen. William McCoy, D-Port, will be the keynote banquet speaker at the Fifth Anniversary symposium of the Eugene Branch of the NAACP Saturday at the Valley River Inn. McCoy, a former District 15 state representative and chair of the Multnomah County Democratic Central Committee, will speak on economic and political issues which minorities and others must deal with for surviving in mainstream society in the 1980s. An ethnic legacy exhibit, including entertainment, will be presented prior to the banquet. Beginning at 6 p.m. in the Rogue room at the Valley River Inn, live music will be performed with co-sponsorship by Eugene Local No. 689 of the American Federation of Musicians. The exhibit and entertainment is free and open to the public. The banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Umpqua room. The charge for attending the banquet is $15 per person or $25 for two persons. Each banquet patron will receive dinner and also a one year NAACP membership (or membership renewal).

For further information and banquet reservations, call 689-9298.

EXHIBITS

Twenty paintings by local artist Phillip Thurber will be featured in the University Faculty Club's first art show of the year. The exhibit will run Saturday through Nov. 9 at the Collier House, 1170 E. 13th Ave. The Thurber exhibit will be kicked off with a reception at the Collier House Saturday from 3-6 p.m. Regular hours are weekdays from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. The exhibit is free and open to the public.
