

49'ers rip Dallas, L.A. tops Atlanta, Oakland shut out

By The Associated Press

Joe Montana threw for two touchdowns, including a 78-yarder to Dwight Clark, to lead the San Francisco 49ers to a 45-14 drubbing of Dallas, handing the Cowboys their worst defeat in 11 seasons.

Montana's heroics kept the surprising 49ers tied for first in the National Conference West with the Los Angeles Rams, who edged the Atlanta Falcons 37-35 on Frank Corral's 25-yard field goal with 24 seconds remaining.

Also winning at the wire were the Minnesota Vikings, who upset the San Diego Chargers 33-31 on a 38-yard field goal by Rick Danmeier as time ran out.

Meanwhile, the Kansas City Chiefs kept the Oakland Raiders off the scoreboard for the third game in a row, registering a 27-0 shutout.

In other National Football League games Sunday, the Pittsburgh Steelers beat the Cleveland Browns 13-7; the New York Jets edged the New England Patriots

28-24; the Philadelphia Eagles downed the New Orleans Saints 31-14, and the Cincinnati Bengals trounced the Baltimore Colts 41-19.

Also, the Houston Oilers defeated the Seattle Seahawks 35-17; the Tampa Bay Buccaneers downed the Green Bay Packers 21-10; the Washington Redskins whipped the Chicago Bears 24-7; the Denver Broncos beat the Detroit Lions 27-21, and the New York Giants beat the St. Louis Cardinals 34-14.

The Miami Dolphins play the Buffalo Bills in Buffalo Monday night.

San Francisco won its fourth game against two losses as Montana combined with Freddie Solomon for the opening touchdown and built a 21-0 first-quarter lead. The 49ers then iced the decision with a pair of TDs within 35 seconds of the third quarter. First Montana, who completed 19 of 29 pass for 279 yards, and Clark connected on their bomb, then cornerback Ronnie Lott returned an intercepted Danny White pass 41 yards for another score.

Dallas scored on a 22-yard pass from running back Drew Pearson to Tony Hill and a 72-yard fumble return by cornerback Benny Barnes.
