HE'S BACK

Author of "The World According to Garp"

"'Bang, Bang, Bang!' " as Franny would say, and, after a brief rest, how they then had Lilly and Egg, 'Pop and Fizzle,' Franny says."

That voice - at once nostalgic and direct - describes the Berry family growing up in three different hotels and on three different continents.

"The first of my father's illusions was that bears could survive the life lived by human beings, and the second was that human beings could survive the life led in hotels."

What happens to father's dreams (and to the children upon whom those dreams are visited) is the subject of John Irving's fifth and finest novel.
