Journalism prof wins award

Journalism prof. Mary Hartman has been selected for a major national award in the field of scholastic journalism.

Executive secretary of the Oregon Scholastic Press and an assistant professor of journalism, Hartman will receive the Pioneer Award of the National Scholastic Press Association Nov. 8 in Kansas City, Mo.

Hartman is one of nine in the nation to receive the award this year. Tom Rolinicki, executive director of NSPA, says Hartman's work "has promoted excellence in our field" and teachers "have benefitted from her expertise and generosity."

Journalism school dean Everette Dennis, says "This is well deserved recognition for Mary Hartman's extraordinary efforts."
