"Women's Lives - Women's Songs" is the title of a workshop which will be held today at the YWCA from 1-3 p.m. Betsy Rose and Cathy Winter will be conducting this special event. The YWCA is located at 841 E. 18th St. It is wheelchair accessible and childcare will be provided.

"Reagan's New Federalism: An Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations Perspective" will be the topic of a speech by Carl Stenberg, assistant director, U.S. Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, today at 2:30 p.m. in the Forum Room, EMU.

EXHIBITS
Pamela Campell and Shelly Sams will be displaying mixed-media drawings beginning Sunday and continuing through Nov. 8 in Gallery 141, Lawrence Hall. Opens 5-7 p.m. Sunday.

MISCELLANEOUS
Weeds - We don't want to spray them, but we don't want them in our Native Plant Garden. Join us for refreshments and weed pulling sessions this Sunday and on Nov. 8 from 1-4 p.m. at the Science Center Complex, 2300 Centennial Blvd., next to Autzen Stadium.

Worship at Koinonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St., each Sunday at 4 p.m. Communion service sponsored by Episcopal Campus Ministry. All are welcome.

The deadline for entry into the all-American Collegiate Talent Search is fast approaching. All entries must be received in the ACTS office by 5 p.m., Dec. 4. Any type of performing talent is eligible in this nationwide search for the best collegiate talent in the country. Students submit entries on video cassettes or cassette tapes with photographs. Entry fee is $25. All contestants are eligible to be selected for a tour of Europe or the Orient sponsored by the United States Department of Defense.

Every entry will be judged by top educational and entertainment industry professionals. Winners qualify for $14,000 in cash and scholarship prizes plus auditions by American Theatre Productions, The Entertainment Connection, The Oakland Ballet Company and Warner Brothers Records. National finalists will compete "live" at New Mexico State University, Jan. 16, 1982 and will serve collectively as an opening act for several major entertainers including Christopher Cross, Johnny Rodriguez and Dinah Shore. For additional information and entry forms contact the music or activities department or call or write: All-American Collegiate Talent Search, Box 35E, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, New Mexico, 88003, (505) 646-4413.

The music of Lon Guitarski and a costume contest will highlight a free Halloween Dance on campus Saturday. Guitarski, a local jazz musician, will perform in the EMU Ballroom from 8-10 p.m. Refreshments will be served. A weekend at the Inn at Otter Crest will be awarded for the most creative and original costume.

Five actors and two actresses are needed for "The Wind-Sail Saga," a musical play for children that will be performed at elementary school assemblies from Dec. 9 through Dec. 19. Auditions for the Dramatic Response production will be held at Whiteaker Elementary school from 7-8:30 p.m. on Sunday and Monday. For more information, call 741-1743 after 5 p.m.

Saturday will be the last Lane County Farmers Market of the 1981 season. You can shop our consignment booth at the Saturday Market throughout the month of November.

A reception to welcome new and returning international students to the University and the local community will be held 3:30-5:30 p.m. Sunday at Gerlinger Alumni Lounge on campus. The public is invited to the event, sponsored by the Foreign Student Friendship Foundation. Officials from the university and the Eugene-Springfield community will attend, and refreshments will be served.

Brownsville Bike Tour - A 70-mile bike tour to Brownsville is offered Saturday by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department's bicycle program. Cyclists should meet at the River House, 301 N. Adams St., at 9 a.m. and bring a sack lunch. Cost is $1.50. No pre-registration is necessary.
