MEETINGS

Hunger Forum meets today at 12:30 p.m. at Koinonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St. The work of Oxfam, a worldwide development aid organization, will be shared. Plans for the Oxfam "Fast for a World Harvest," to be held on Nov. 19, will be discussed. All members of the community are urged to bring ideas and energy. Parking and beverages available. Bring a sack lunch. For more information call Clergy and Laity Concerned, 485-1755.

WORKSHOPS/SEMINARS

"Unplug the Christmas Machine" will be offered by the Lane Community Home Economics Department. This workshop will enable participants to take a hard look at their recent Christmas, make decisions as to what is most important to them about Christmas, imagine a perfect holiday, find ideas for alternative Christmas celebrations and put it all together in a simple plan. Two free sessions are planned. Participants may come to any one session. Session one will be next Monday from 9 a.m. until noon at the Eugene Public Library (upstairs), 100 W. 13th Ave. The second session is scheduled on Nov. 16 from 6:30-9 p.m. at the Eugene Public Library. Preregistration is required. To preregister or for further information, call 747-4501, ext. 2533 and ask for Beth Naylor.

A discussion of how criminal law administration affects you will be presented by the People's Law School tonight from 7-9 p.m. at Patterson Community School, 15th Avenue and Polk Street. Topics will include police accountability and the policies behind probation and parole practices in Oregon. There is no charge and no registration is necessary. For more information, call Sue at 342-6056.

SPEAKERS

The book in American life will be the subject of a talk by John Cole of the Library of Congress today at 3:30 p.m. in the Geringer Alumni Lounge. The presentation, which is free and open to the public, is being held as part of the University Library's 100th anniversary celebration. Cole will discuss the future of the books, the history of books and printing; and problems of reading, literacy, publishing and authorship.

EXHIBITS

EMU Cultural forum presents "Visual Dialogue: Photography and Printmaking." A unique exhibition of Northwest artists exploring the relationships between the two media. Come to the opening reception and talk to Ken Paul and Willie Osteman about their craft. Opening Tuesday from 7-9 p.m., and continuing Nov. 4-8 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. in Room 167, EMU.
