Dorm Residents: You can help support the Oxfam "Fast for a World Harvest" on Nov. 19. Sign up at the tables in front of your cafeteria this week and your food service will donate money.

"Malcolm X: Struggle for Freedom" — a film documentary-portrait of black liberation leader Malcolm X filmed just three months prior to his death. He discusses the foundation and goals of the U.S.-based struggle for black freedom, and the ties to the independence movements in Africa. Today at 7 p.m. in Room 244, Gilbert Hall. Sponsored by "World Crisis — Choices for the Future" Search class.

Mortar Board announces the opening of the November Professor of the Month competition. Any student may nominate their choice for the outstanding professor by completing an application blank available in the Main Library. Applications blanks are directly across from the telephone books. Students are requested to nominate only associate, full, or visiting professors currently teaching at the University. Entries will be accepted until Nov. 30. The winner will be announced just before finals Week.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures, seminars, exhibits, scholarships, or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run once and they are subject to space limitations. They must be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information. Also, list a name and phone number in case we have questions, and the date you want the brief run. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted unless the organization is non-profit. All items must be turned in by noon the day before publication at the Emerald Office, Room 300, EMU. If you have a question, please feel free to contact John at 686-5511.
