Woody Allen's INTERIORS

Far from being a typical Woody Allen film, Interiors is soul-wrenching serious cinema. Allen does not appear in the film, though he wrote, produced and directed it; but he manages to elicit brilliant performances from his stars: Diane Keaton, Marybeth Hurt, E.G. Marshall, Geraldine Page and Maurice Stapleton. Feminist critic Molly Haskell considers Interiors to be one of the more positive feminist films of the late seventies. Interiors shows this Sunday at 7 and 9 pm in room 180 PLC. $1.50. 491-11-6

Paths of Glory

The film that first brought Stanley Kubrick (2001, A Space Odyssey) both wide acclaim and controversy; Paths of Glory is a monument to the anti-human aspects of war. Based on a true incident in WWI in which an entire French Army division was accused of cowardice, a capital offense.

This 1981 thriller did not receive the attention it sooooo deserved. It's a very colorful film with an original soundtrack by Tangerine Dream. Thief shows this Saturday, November 7, at 7 and 9 pm in room 150 Geology. $1.50. 490-11-6
