District 40 seat sought

State Rep. Margie Hendricksen, D-Eugene, is seeking a second term to represent District 40 in the Oregon House.

Hendricksen announced her candidacy for another two-year term at a Saturday meeting with her constituents.

She is the first Democrat and second candidate to officially enter the District 40 race. Robin Townsend, a manager of a Eugene word processing company, already had announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination.

Hendricksen is a graduate of the University law school.
